STUDENTS RETURN UPDATES – STARTING 3/29/21

The Board of Education has approved the following regarding students returning to full day instruction. Please review the following information and contact the school with any questions. Thank you.

- Students in PK-1 and the Structure Learning Environment (SLE) will continue to report for full day instruction Mondays-Thursdays.
- Starting March 29th, in-person students in grades 2-5 will no longer follow the M/W and T/TH schedule, but instead ALL students will report for full day instruction Mondays-Thursdays.
- Students still have the option of remaining virtual, which will also be full instructional days.
- Students in grades 2-5 that opted-out to remain virtual will continue to attend full days virtually Mondays-Thursdays.
- Starting the week of April 19th-23rd, in-person students in grades PK-5/SLE will report ALL FIVE days for in-person full day instruction.
- In-person students in grades K-5/SLE - school day time is 8:45-3:10.
- In-person students in grades PK3 and PK4 - school day time is 8:45-11:30 (AM session) and 12:30-3:10 (PM session).
- Virtual students in grades K-1 that opted-out to remain virtual – school day time is 8:45-12 (Instruction), 12-1:30 (lunch/break), 1:30-3:10 (teacher small group instruction).
- Virtual school day time for grades 2-5 that opted out to remain virtual – school day time 8:45-12 (Instruction), 12-1:30 (lunch/break), 1:30-3:10 (Instruction).
- Families opting-in students to return to in-person instruction for marking period 4 (April 12th) must contact the school by March 31st. After this date, virtual students will continue to receive virtual instruction until the end of the school year.
- As indicated, ASYNCHRONOUS learning designated on specific dates indicates learning instruction through packets and/or recordings/links which will be posted and/or hard copies provided to students to complete independently - no live teacher instruction.
