The Board of Education of Allegany County uses a combined approach methodology. Staffing is based on student enrollment; salary amounts are not considered. Some categories of funding are made on a per pupil basis. Some funding is based upon an equal amount distributed to each school.

The Board of Education of Allegany County uses the following guidelines for the distribution of state and local funds to schools:

Category	Student Enrollment	Per Pupil Amount	Per School Allotment
Staffing	X		X
Class Size	X
Instructional Materials		X
Equipment/Repairs			X
Office Supplies			X

The Chief Financial Officer is responsible for the allocation of state and local funds. The Board of Education of Allegany County's budget is compiled and approved by local county government. An annual audit of the organization is required by COMAR and performed by an approved audit firm. MSDE auditors come to the district every two years and perform an audit of the financial and statistical reports that relate to State Aid to Education Programs as well as other monitoring visits periodically. Approximately every six years, the Department of Legislative Services of the Maryland General Assembly's Office of Legislative Audits conducts an audit of the financial management practices of school districts within the state.
