A Note From...

Pre-K

Pre-K's current reading unit is transportation! We are continuing to work on letters and letter sounds. The students are working hard to learn and recognize all 52 letters in order to earn a trophy! In math, we are continuing our lessons on recognizing numbers and putting numbers together to make 5 and 10 using ten frames. We also reviewed and practiced our addition and subtraction skills. Our writing skills are improving! We write our names every day and use our journals. Please continue to read every night with your child! Thanks for all you do!

Kindergarten

Kindergarten has been working hard and having fun in the process. We enjoyed celebrating our 100th day of school and all things "100!" The Kindergarten students made creative projects that showed off their counting skills! Great job! In March, we are looking forward to celebrating Dr. Seuss' birthday with some great Dr. Seuss stories. We will also celebrate St. Patrick's Day with students creating Leprechaun traps! Look for more information in the coming weeks. In addition, we ask you to review your child's high frequency words daily; we are becoming better readers and writers with every new word we learn. During math, we have learned about addition, and now we are moving on to subtraction! Keep practicing writing those numbers to 100!

First Grade

First grade has enjoyed celebrating several special days in February. We started the month by predicting if the groundhog would see his shadow. As we all know, he did not see his shadow and to the children's delight Spring will be coming soon. Next, we celebrated 100 days of school. We enjoyed learning all about 100. Finally, we celebrated Valentine's Day. Thanks to PTO for the delicious food and fun games! It has been a fun month in first grade!

Second Grade

Second Grade is having a wonderful start to the New Year 2020! In Reading, we are currently reading stories about working together and how it is better to work as a team. In Math, we have learned how to add and subtract two digit numbers and are working on telling time and counting money. Second graders have also begun to learn cursive writing. Thanks for your support from home!

Third Grade

The third grade students are working hard! In math, students have been practicing multiplication and division facts. We recently completed an area and perimeter unit. We are now beginning a fraction unit. In ELA, third graders are focusing on becoming good writers and reading to find text dependent answers. We have been creating great topic sentences, using at least 3 supporting sentences with details, and using closing sentences. It won't be long and the students will be taking their first MCAP test. Finally, we would like to thank parents for encouraging students to read daily, while working on their fluency. We would like to remind students to continue to take Accelerated Reader test, completing Book It, and studying their multiplication and division facts.

The Book Fair is coming to our school Monday, March 9th through Monday, March 16th! This year classes can both look and buy during their regular Library, Technology, and Life Skills classes.

Families are also invited to shop the Book Fair on Parent Conference Day, March 6th. We're WILD about BOOKS!

Fourth Grade

Students in fourth grade have been knee deep into fractions! They have been working hard to find equivalent, compare, order, add, subtract, and multiply fractions! We are so proud of students for working so hard to tackle such a challenging concept! During reading students are beginning to prepare for MCAP testing by working on various reading, writing and language skills. Students are reminded to read and record it on their reading logs. When students practice reading they become more fluent in all subjects! We are well into the 3rd marking period and approaching out last 9-weeks! Spring, here we come!

Fifth Grade

As they say, "March comes in like a lion and out like a lamb" and as quickly as this happens, 5th graders are coming to the end of their elementary school years. We are taking the MISA science test March 24-27. We still need to stay focused and prepare for the upcoming MCAP test. We are currently studying fractions in math. Please get plenty of rest in preparation for the tests. Our final rounds of book reports will take place after testing is over. Thank you for your continued support at home. Stay warm and think spring!
